

Mom Prays Truth

Truths to pray for your school-aged children and the scripture that informs them.

Independence from us, dependence on God.

Psalm 91:4, “He will cover you with His feathers, and under his wings you may seek refuge; His faithfulness is a shield and defensive wall.”

Move forward despite being afraid.

Joshua 1:9, “This is my command, ‘Be strong and courageous, do not be terrified, and do not be discouraged, the Lord your God is with you wherever you go’.”

Earnestly go to God in prayer.

Philippians 4:6, “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your request be made know to God.”

God’s Word would become a source of life.

Isaiah 40:8, “The grass withers, the flowers fade, but the word of our God stands forever.”

Compassion towards those that don’t know of God’s love.

Luke 5, 31-32, “It is not those that are well that need a physician, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.”

Choose to be content despite circumstances.

Philippians 4:13, “I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength.”

Desire to know others and be known by others deeply in community.

Hebrews 10:24-25, “And let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit fo some, but encouraging one another; and all the more as you see the day drawing near.”

By God’s grace, be an example of those that believe.

1 Timothy 4:12, ‘Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, love, faith and purity, show yourself as an example of those who believe.’”

When faced with an opportunity to hurt others, choose self-control.

2 Timothy 1:7, “For God has not give us a spirit of timidity but of power, love and self-discipline.”

Be about what God says is good.

Micah 6:8, “He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”

Be discerning about your inner circle.

Proverbs 13:20, “He who walks with wise men will be wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm.”

Focus on being a good friend, not a best friend.

Proverbs 12:26, "The righteous is a guide to his neighbor, but the way of the wicked leads them away."

When you hurt others (not if), seek their forgiveness.

Daniel 9:9, "To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against Him."

Matthew 5: 23-24, "Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother or sister has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First, go and be reconciled to them then come and offer your gift."

Respect your teachers, classmates and yourself.

1 Peter 2:17, "Show proper respect to everyone, love the family of believers, fear God, honor the emperor."

As often as you can, practice putting others first.

Philippians 2:3-4, "Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind, consider others as more important than yourselves, do not merely look out for your own interests, but also for the interests of others."

Yield to the Spirit.

Isaiah 30:21, "Your ears will hear a word behind you, "This is the way, walk in it," whenever you turn to the right or to the left."

Continual growth in the grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 3:17-18, "You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, be on your guard so that you are not carried away but the error of unprincipled men and fall from your own steadfastness, but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

Work hard for the Lord, not for man.

Colossians 3:23, "Whatever you do, do you rower heartily, as for the Lord rather than for men."

Only God can provide peace that never fails.

John 14:27, "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be fearful."
